SOCIAL NOTES

An enjoyable dance was that given at the Moana Hotel Monday evening, in honor of the officers on board the U. S. S. Buffalo.

The hotel was a blaze of light and in its festive garb, the ball room formed an attractive background for the many beautiful women present.

The officers, in the stunning uniform of the navy were out in full force, and were welcomed by many of the resident Army and Navy people, as well as by society in general.

Many little groups were cozily ensconced on the lanais, and enjoyed to the full, the fascinating witchery of a tropic evening and were loth to depart until long after midnight.

The studio of Mr. James Wilder was the scene of a jolly stag dinner Thursday evening of last week, in honor of Mr. Leslie Scott who will leave shortly to practice law on the mainland.

Several unique and original ideas were carried out in the decorations which were the cause of much merriment and jollity.

The guests were: Mr. Leslie Scott, Judge Wilder, Mr. Richard Wright, Judge Lindsay, Mr. Bruce Cartright Jr., Mr. William Roth, Mr. Rannie Scott, Mr. Benton, Mr. Sorensen, Mr. James Wilder and Mr. Charles Hartwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Young entertained at dinner in a charming manner Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. Alexander Young at Waikiki. The dining table, set in the attractive dining room overlooking the sea, was prettily decorated with pink carnations and maidenhair, the place cards being dainty paper dolls with pink crepe gowns and hats to match. The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin P. Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. B. Griggs Holt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. von Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berg, Miss Gillet, and Mr. William Williamson.

The departure of the Makura at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon was witnessed by a large number of people gathered on the wharf to say farewell to departing friends and relatives.

Princess Kawaanakoa was the chief attraction and was laden with leis and floral tributes from a large circle of admiring friends. She will attend the Seattle Fair and later go to Los Angeles to be joined there by her three children.

Mr. R. G. E. Forster, British Consul to Hawaii, departed for England, to place his young son in a English school.

Mr. Michael Jameson of Bishop & Co., went up to join his fiancée, Miss Bullen at her home in Victoria.

When the China was in port on Tuesday, Mrs. Hugh Anderson and daughter Miss May, of Salt Lake City, were entertained by Mrs. Falls, wife of Capt. Falls.

Mrs. Anderson and her daughter are making a tour of the world; they have previously visited Egypt, India, and Europe, and are so enchanted with the climate of Hawaii that they may return here next winter. In Cambodia, they were the guests of the ruler, and in India, were entertained by His Highness, the Maharajah of Gwalior.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. B. Griggs Holt, a dinner of charming appointments was given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Conrad C. von Hamm at their beautiful residence on Pacific Heights.

The guests, who went up from town in automobiles were Mr. and Mrs. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Young, Miss Francis Gillet, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr. and Mr. William Williamson.

Prof. W. A. Alexander and his daughter, Miss Agnes B. Alexander, are visiting relatives in Hauku and Makawao.

The arrival of the Pacific Fleet the middle of September will bring a large addition to society here, for not only are there many officers coming, but the wives and families of quite a number, will follow them to Honolulu, most of them are expected on the Manchuria Sept. 14th.

Miss Helen MacFarlane of Honolulu was the guest of honor at a pretty luncheon given for her by Mrs. Frank D. Nicol of Stockton, who is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes Smith, at the Hillcrest. Her luncheon guests yesterday included Mrs. Robert Hayes Smith, Miss Anna Peters, Miss Helen MacFarlane, Miss Innes Keeney and Miss Enid Gregg—Chronicle.

Capt. C. C. Waient Jr., 5th Cavalry, has completed a three months' tour of duty in the office of the Quartermaster General. He and Mrs. Walcott, after a visit to Capt. H. J. Hirsch at Columbus Barracks, and short stays in Indianapolis and Chicago, are en route to San Francisco, whence they will sail August 5th for Honolulu, to join the 5th Cavalry at Schofield Barracks.—Army and Navy Journal.

Cards have been sent out announcing the marriage at Punaohale, Hawaii, on August 11 of Mr. Henry Ennio Savage to Miss William Wyrle Sutton. They will be at home in Punahoa after September 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage came to Honolulu last Saturday and departed Tuesday on the Makura, to spend their honeymoon at the Seattle Fair.

General and Mrs. John McClellan entertained in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Ben Brodie of Detroit, Michigan, with a dinner on Wednesday evening.

Among those invited to meet Dr. and Mrs. Brodie were Major and Mrs. Wadhams, Mr. and Mrs. Parks, Lieutenant Burrell, the Misses McClellan and Major Cree.

To the great regret of his many friends here, Lieut. John G. Inke-meyer, one of the most popular young officers of the Fifth Cavalry, has been detailed to take the course of instruction at the Mounted Service School at Fort Riley, Kansas, and will leave very shortly for the coast.

Civil Engineer Bakenhus, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bakenhus, who passed through last week on the Korea en route to Olongapo, Philippine Islands, were entertained while in Honolulu by Civil Engineer Parks, U. S. N., and Mrs. Parks, and Assistant Civil Engineer Burrell, U. S. N.
